SUPPLMENT TO MOTION FOR TELEPHONE CONFERENCE

Comes now Plaintiff David Stebbins, who respectfully submits the following supplement to his motion for a telephone conference.

Earlier today, I received a call from the Clerk's Office, requested that I submit the documents that contain information pertinent to my grievance. I am doing that now.

First, I submit the defendants' response to my second and third interrogatories. See Exhibit A. This proves that the defendants have refused to articulate any other reasonable accommodations, besides job reassignment, claiming that he had already answered the question earlier in that same document. As you can clearly see, that is BS.

Second, I submit the defendants' response to my fourth request for admissions. See Exhibit B. In this one, the defendants deny that no other reasonable accommodations were provided. This means that there are other reasonable accommodations that the defendant is not telling me about.

I hope this helps the court in making its decision during the telephone conference. If the court requires anything further of me, do not hesitant to ask.

It is so submitted on this 8th day of March, 2011.
